One Book One Northwestern: Hidden Figures
Wednesday, 1:15–3:15 p.m.
Hidden Figures by Margot Lee Shetterly, is the true story of the black women mathematicians at NASA who helped fuel some of America's greatest achievements in space and the One Book One Northwestern all-campus read for the 2019-20 academic year. The story is captivating and inspiring, illuminating the power of human innovation when prejudices are set aside. In addition to reading the book, we will view and discuss the film. See the catalog for full description.

Frank Gehry: Creation of an Architect
Thursday, 9:45–11:45 a.m.
Gehry is considered the most famous living architect. This study group will explore how Gehry combined art and technology to create his unique persona and his extraordinary style of architecture. We will view and discuss his work through the use of the very readable book, Building Art: The Life and Work of Frank Gehry (Knopf, 2015) by Paul Goldberger. A documentary about Gehry will also be shown.

2019-2020 One Book has been announced! This year's selection is Hidden Figures by Margot Lee Shetterly. Hidden Figures is the true story of three pathbreaking black women scientists whose work enabled NASA's first manned mission to orbit the Earth. We are offering the One Book selection for sale to our members at a special OLLI price of $7.85. You can purchase the book through our online registration system (under Special Events). Once purchased, the book can be picked up at the OLLI office.

OLLI is excited to be participating in One Book One Northwestern again this coming academic year. There will be events on campus for the whole Northwestern community as well as study groups and special events at OLLI for our members.

OLLI Out and About!

It was another wonderful gathering of three OLLIs at Ravinia. This year we were joined by the OLLI at the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee! Steven Alltop, Director of Music at the Alice Millar Chapel at Northwestern, joined us again and gave a fascinating lecture on Rachmaninoff that added depth and perspective to the evening's concert. We could not have asked for a nicer evening.

This summer's Hidden Gems of Streeterville study group was out and about this summer exploring all this amazing part of the city has to offer. They toured backstage at the Chicago Shakespeare Theater - including a tour of the Yard, the theater's new innovative, flexible, theater space that has received critical acclaim. Additionally, they visited the Poetry Foundation where they heard poems by Chicago authors and wrote poems of their own about the streets on which they each grew up. They also took in exhibits at the Museum of Contemporary Art in Chicago and visited the Newberry Library, just to name a few.
